COCOA.

The "man on stilts" afforded much fun on the streets Monday.

Winslow Bisbee came up from Lotus Saturday, on the Canaveral.

Dr. Schofield has several men at work putting his premises in fine order.

Mrs. W. L. Hughlett is suffering from the sting of a very poisonous insect.

William Scott and bride, of Titusville, are visiting Mother Dixon at Dixon's Point.

S. F. Travis has been elected school supervisor, and a better man could not have been found.

Bert. Faber, the accommodating clerk of E. C. Johnson, is sick at his home at City Point.

Mrs. Wagner, of Georgiana, chaperoned a party to the exercises of Cocoa school last Friday.

Mrs. T. A. Robinson and the school at City Point attended the exercises at Cocoa school last Friday.

P. A. McMillan and two daughters, of Banyan, and Mr. Chalker and family, of Lotus, were here a day or two since.

We heartily recommend Mesdames Hindle and Joyner, as dressmakers; their fitting and finishing are above criticism.

Mrs. Lyman is not expected to live. Dr. Schofield and the good women of Cocoa are doing all they can to make her comfortable.

The people appreciate the daily steamers; we have frequently seen a number of people from various points of the river on our streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood passed through Cocoa on their way to the meeting of the Indian River Baptist association at Indianapolis, last week.

Rev. W. E. Smith and family arrived at Rockledge Tuesday evening. Mr. Smith will preach in the chapel Sunday next at 11 o'clock, Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

The following program was almost faultlessly rendered by the Cocoa school last Friday:

Chorus by school.
Piano solo, Evelyn Travis.
Song, "Birdies' Ball," Primary Grade.
Piano duet, Virginia Hatch, Mary Paxton.
March by class.
Song, "My First Music Lesson," Maysie Porcher.
Wand drill by the boys.
Piano solo, Lizzie Hughlett.
Song by the primary class.
Piano duet, Adrian and Maysie Porcher.
Calisthenics by class.
Duet, Grace Hardee, Miss Carter.
Chorus by school.

SHILOH.

We have been having some wintry weather the past week.

Mr. Fries, of Titusville, was a pleasant caller in Shiloh Wednesday.

Miss Martha Griffiths is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. C. Carpenter, in Titusville.

Mr. L. Davidson arrived from Titusville Friday, where he has been for the past month.

Misses Lizzie and Annie Kuhl returned from Illinois Monday, where they have been for the past summer.

Mr. Felix P. Ziy arrived from Chattanooga, Tenn., Friday where he has been for the past year. We were glad to welcome him home again.

For Hoarseness.

George A. Pontins, Upper Sandusky, O., writes: "I have been using Foley's Honey and Tar for sore throat and hoarseness and find it is the best remedy I ever tried. It stopped the cough immediately and relieved all soreness. B. R. Wilson & Son."

EAU GALLIE.

The Princess was launched on Saturday from Hodgson's ways.

Mrs. Nesbitt has gone on a visit to Miami for a few weeks.

Miss Jennie Miller spent Sunday with her parents at Melbourne.

Dr. B. F. Brown, of Titusville, was the guest of W. J. Nesbitt on Sunday.

W. Treutler is progressing slowly toward recovery from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNabb, of Youngstown, O., arrived Tuesday at their lovely winter home.

Miss A. Florence Hodgson is expecting a friend from Carolina shortly to spend the winter at the Lodge.

Mr. J. E. Hodgson enjoyed an impromptu plunge in the Eau Gallie river on Monday. Mr. H. did not have time to don his bathing suit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stickney and Mrs. Canfield, of Olean, N. Y., arrived Tuesday. They report a collision on the way down, but no serious casualties.

The "Fly-by-Night" is being overhauled on Hodgson's ways for the use of Mr. E. S. Randall, who will use her as a house boat in the Thousand Islands.

The launch Dawn, Mr. J. M. Randall's new boat, is in the waters of the Eau Gallie river. She is a beauty and very fast. Eau Gallie is proud of the new addition to the fleet.

Mrs. Danforth and the Misses Danforth, of Olean, N. Y., are expected this week. Mrs. Danforth has rented one of the cosy cottages owned by J. A. Gilbert for the coming winter months.

Dr. Randall has given up the practice of medicine for an indefinite period since being gazetted captain of the thirty-three foot launch "Dawn." Mr. Randall found that the confinement and hard study necessary to his old profession too much for his constitution. His change of work is by advice of Dr. Hennessy.

Dr. Loyal Ford's Dyspepticide is a cure, not a mere relief for indigestion. It digests the food and makes the stomach right. B. R. Wilson & Son.

MELBOURNE.

Miss Helen Miller spent Sunday at Melbourne beach.

Quite a number of the fishermen have gone south the past week.

The Literary club met at Mrs. Frank Fee's last Friday evening.

We are pleased to know that Mrs. Lillian Walker is improving in health.

Mr. Carson and wife, and son George, have moved from East Melbourne to Grant.

Miss Jennie Miller came down from Eau Gallie to spend Sunday with the home folks.

Mr. W. R. Campbell is now busy making a nice shell road around the Episcopal church.

The tenth conference of the east coast Congregational churches is in session in Melbourne this week.

Miss Jessie Goode left Wednesday for Jacksonville to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. James T. Hogg.

Messrs. J. H. Baker and G. S. Snedeker are putting a brick foundation under Grandview cottage, owned by Mr. H. O. Snedeker.

Wild ducks are very plentiful on our river. Last Monday morning Capt. J. Goode caught 25 fine fat fellows in his pompano net.

Capt. Charlie Hatch, of Rockledge, brought a party down on his launch last Monday to take a few days hunt in the woods west of Melbourne.

Mrs. Addison Fee, Mrs. C. H. Stewart and the Misses Benedict and Hoke and others have been enjoying a trip to the sea shore at Melbourne beach lately.

OAK HILL.

Mr. F. W. Hatch and family returned here last week from Palm Beach, where they have been spending the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Allen, with Miss Seaver, are with us again at their winter home, arriving Tuesday, after a pleasant trip on the Comanche.

Mr. C. G. Wakely has been spending a few days with Mr. W. C. Howes, shooting ducks, squirrels, etc. He returned to St. Augustine Wednesday.

Mr. T. P. Howes is at home for a vacation and expects to visit Nashville, Atlanta and Charlotte, N. C., before returning to work on the F. E. C.

Messrs. H. G. Putnam, M. R. Creighton, Jr., H. J. Magruder and G. B. Cooper drove to Mims Sunday to inspect the groves of Messrs. Magruder & Cooper.

Mrs. L. H. Barker, of Jensen, Mrs. R. L. Luffman, of South Jacksonville, and Miss Ala Wing, of Bayard, were in town this week for the Wing-Barker wedding.

Mr. John Wilkinson, who has been in New York for several months, is visiting at Mr. E. A. Marsh's before proceeding to Merritts Island to take charge of the Riverview Hotel.

WEDDING BELLS IN OAK HILL.

Married at 11 o'clock Sunday a. m., at the residence of Mr. J. S. Gaines, Miss Addie Gaines to Mr. Walter L. Null, of Daytona, by the Rev. Mr. Sheffield, also of Daytona. The wedding was a very quiet affair, but the friends of the bride assembled at the station to bid her good bye, and wish her and her husband all happiness in their new home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Barker was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Nellie Barker was united in marriage to Mr. Asa M. Wing, of Bayard, Fla. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Morgan, of New Smyrna, and the wedding march was tastefully rendered by Miss Ala Wing, sister of the groom. The rooms prettily decorated, the background for the bridal couple being a mass of flowers and foliage. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wing received the congratulations and best wishes of their friends, who after partaking of the wedding cake, escorted the happy couple to the station, and saw them on the train amidst a shower of rice. Mr. and Mrs. Wing will visit Charleston, S. C., before taking possession of their new home in Bayard.

OFFICE UNDER LAW OFFICE OF GEO. M. ROBBINS, TITUSVILLE, FLA.

Articles of Agreement.

Articles of agreement of the East Coast Camp Meeting and Chautauqua association, under the auspices of the A. M. E. church.

OBJECT.

The object of this association shall be purely religious and educational, therefore our camp meeting must be held in the fall months of each and every year.

A union Sunday school picnic, advertised from Jacksonville and all points south, will be held during the spring or early summer of each and every year for the benefit of the children in the districts at large, and as soon as possible hold an educational chautauqua.

GOVERNMENT.

Said grounds will be held under the auspices of the A. M. E. church, held in trust by a board of nine trustees herein mentioned, viz.:

Joseph L. Moore, president; William G. Fields, secretary; Walter H. Brown, William B. Killix, Chas. S. Long, Walter W. Williams, J. D. Hill, S. A. Harris and Wm. Brown.

The officers shall conduct all of their meetings through themselves or their representatives, and shall hold their positions after being elected for four years, unless for causes hereafter mentioned. The following are the officers to serve the first term of four years:

J. L. Moore, P. E., president; W. G. Fields, 1st vice president; W. W. Williams, 2nd vice president and superintendent; C. S. Long, secretary; S. A. Harris, assistant secretary; W. H. Brown, treasurer and superintendent.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

W. B. Killix, chairman; J. A. Long, secretary; B. F. Green, J. D. Hill, D. B. Myrick, M. T. Cary, W. D. Certain, P. E.; W. H. Hall, B. W. Wiley, P. E.

The trustees shall have the entire management and control of all the property belonging to this association, now or hereafter by purchase, gift, donation, or erection. Shall also stipulate the amount any member must pay for putting the grounds or building in proper condition. Any member failing to comply with the stipulation, after reasonable time given, will at once lose their membership.

The trustees shall name terms for carrying on business on the grounds of the association and shall remain in office so long as they carry out the object of the association, as set forth in the articles of agreement, at which time, upon the request of the citizens of Titusville, or a petition from five of the members of the association, the full association will be called to meet in Titusville in 30 days and elect a new board of trustees. The duty of all the officers will be such as pertains to the office they hold. (Signed.)

Joseph L. Moore, P. E.; Charles S. Long, William G. Fields, J. A. Long, S. A. Davis, W. W. Williams, B. F. Green, W. B. Killix, W. H. Brown, D. B. Myrick, W. H. Hall, M. T. Cary, W. D. Certain, P. E.; B. W. Wiley, P. E.; J. C. M. Combs, J. B. Brown, A. B. Collins.

TITUSVILLE, FLA., November 14, 1900.

This is to certify that Rev. W. G. Fields, assistant general manager, is authorized to close up the contract between the citizens and the camp meeting committee and sign any and all papers for us.

(Signed.) J. L. Moore, P. E., President.

W. H. BROWN,
W. G. FIELDS,
First Vice President.

Does the Baby Thrive

If not, something must be wrong with its food. If the mother's milk doesn't nourish it, she needs SCOTT'S EMULSION. It supplies the elements of fat required for the baby. If baby is not nourished by its artificial food, then it requires

Scott's Emulsion

Half a teaspoonful three or four times a day in its bottle will have the desired effect. It seems to have a magical effect upon babies and children. A fifty-cent bottle will prove the truth of our statements.
